Season Highlights

The only Festival in North America to host three of the world's finest orchestras in a single season, Bravo! Vail 2014 features summer residencies by the Dallas Symphony Orchestra, The Philadelphia Orchestra, and the New York Philharmonic. World-renowned chamber musicians join artistic director Anne-Marie McDermott for the Chamber Music Series and Silver Oak & Twomey Series.

The Dallas Symphony Orchestra opens the season on Friday, June 27th, with jazz guitar great John Pizzarelli in music by Richard Rodgers, George Gershwin, Harold Arlen, and Duke Ellington. Music Director Jaap van Zweden returns Saturday, June 28th to lead Beethoven's Symphony No. 9, Choral. On Sunday, June 29th, van Zweden offers Ravel's most famous work, Boléro.

Hollywood film classics from great Westerns to James Bond films and favorites by John Williams are presented on July 2nd before the residency ends with the Patriotic Concert on July 4th.

The Philadelphia Orchestra opens on July 5th with superstar violinist Joshua Bell. Conductor Donald Runnicles debuts leading the Philadelphians in programs July 6th and 7th. Artistic Director Anne-Marie McDermott plays Mozart on July 7th.

Bravo! Vail presents its first-ever screening of a film with live orchestra accompaniment with Walt Disney's cinematic masterpiece, Fantasia – here by The Philadelphia Orchestra. Music Director Yannick Nézet-Séguin returns on July 11th and 12th with Beethoven's Symphony No. 3, Eroica, and the sensational French pianist Hélène Grimaud.

The New York Philharmonic opens Friday, July 18th with music director Alan Gilbert leading violinist Midori playing Tchaikovsky's Violin Concerto. On Saturday, July 19th, pianist Yefim Bronfman performs two of Beethoven's most popular works – his concertos numbers 1 and 5.

On Sunday, July 20th the New York Philharmonic offers works by Strauss, Rouse and Tchaikovsky. Bramwell Tovey returns on Wednesday, July 23rd, in an all-American program of works by Copland, Gershwin, and Grofé, and on July 24th the Philharmonic offers music by Frank Loesser, including hits from Guys and Dolls and The Most Happy Fella.

Closing the Philharmonic's residency on July 25th is Russian Classics, featuring Joyce Yang in Rachmaninoff's Piano Concerto No. 1.

Bravo! Vail's Chamber Music Series is scheduled for successive Tuesday nights, typically at the Donovan Pavilion. Gershwin and Joplin: Chamber Jazz features members of the Dallas Symphony Orchestra, Philadelphia Orchestra members perform Vivaldi's The Four Seasons, and a concert of Baroque Concertos and More closes the season on August 2nd.

The Silver Oak & Twomey Series continues at the Donovan Pavilion in three programs, July 29, 30, and 31. Relaxed, elegant, intimate, and surrounded by the beauty of the outdoors, the evenings feature cabaret-style seating, with great wines included.

Bravo! Vail also offers 25 different free, hour-long orchestral, chamber music and community engagement concerts for people of all ages in venues throughout the Vail Valley.
