

Do We Owe You a Thank You?

Bravo! Vail enjoys tremendous philanthropic support. Our community is committed to high quality musical performance. We are grateful for all you do.

In addition to generous annual support, Bravo! Vail will occasionally receive a legacy gift from a thoughtful patron. These are humbling moments. Not only has someone provided financial support, but their legacy gift will help ensure world class performance for today, tomorrow, and for future generations. Their dedication to artistic excellence lives on.

We are thrilled whenever anyone lets us know about a future gift through their estate. It gives us the chance to honor and celebrate their generous commitment in advance. It also allows us to understand their wishes in full, so we can become good future stewards of their legacy gift.

Occasionally, however, we do not learn of a legacy gift until a person passes away. This is always a bittersweet moment. While we are obviously grateful for every gift, we are also saddened to know we never had the chance to say, “thank you.”

If you have remembered Bravo! Vail in your estate plans, we hope you will let us know. It will help us prepare to utilize your future gift exactly as you intend. And please know we can honor any wishes for anonymity as well. It is entirely up to you.

However, if you prefer not to share the news of your legacy gift in advance, we understand. Please just know we are grateful. Both now and in the future.

If you would like to learn more about creating a legacy gift at Bravo! Vail, please contact Jason Denhart at jdenhart@bravovail.org or 970-331-1211. Please know all inquiries will be held in strict confidence.
